

[illegible]

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

NEW SOUTH WALES FUNDED STOCK.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—It is probable that the insurance companies will apply for a portion of the New South Wales loan, though it is the opinion of financiers that it will be of little, if any, advantage to English investors, owing to the fact of its being a local issue.

CITY OF MELBOURNE LOAN.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—It is reported that a City of Melbourne loan will be placed on the London market shortly.

SILVER COINAGE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Sir William Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has written to Mr. James Munro, Agent-General for Victoria, in reference to the question of silver coinage in Australia. He says that nothing more can be done in the matter until an answer to the Treasury minute of 17th August is received from the colonies. He adds that as the proposed silver coinage must circulate through the whole of Australia it is impossible that the question can be decided upon the isolated case of a single colony without the concurrence of the rest of the colonies.

Mr. Munro has replied to this communication. He says he is quite at a loss to understand this view of the subject, according to which Victoria is refused her rights as an independent colony on a matter exclusively her own, and in no way affecting the interests of other. Victoria, he declares, has not the slightest objection to any other colony making a similar application, but does object to the interference of another colony in a question that is simply between the Imperial Government and Victoria. No colony, he adds, would be compelled to purchase Victoria-issued silver. In conclusion, Mr. Munro expresses a hope that Sir William Harcourt will reconsider his decision.

QUEENSLAND SEPARATION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A meeting of a number of leading colonists of North Queensland resident in London has been held, at which it was decided to take steps to arrange a representative committee to act in conjunction with the Separation League.

SOCIALIST RIOT.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Times says that the Northern and Central divisions of Queensland have made out a strong case in favour of separation. The failure of Sir Samuel Griffith to carry the Constitution Amendment Bill providing for provincial separation revives the agitation in favour of complete separation. Lord Ripon, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, will be obliged to say whether he will be able any longer to resist the practically unanimous vote and wish of the North Queenslanders.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Sir Malcolm Fraser, ex-Premier of Western Australia, has read a paper before the Colonial Institute on the resources of that colony. Lord Brassey, who was chairman, stated that an engineer would shortly be despatched to Western Australia to test the new railway schemes. Mr. Martin, of the Great Southern Railway, complained that Sir John Forrest's free-agent policy, in connection with railway construction, was an encroachment upon the rights of land companies.

MR FITZGIBBON IN LONDON.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Mr. E. G. Fitzgibbon, Chairman of the Melbourne Metropolitan Board of Works, has indignantly repudiated an assertion which appeared in a London newspaper that Melbourne and Ballarat were founded by a herd of ruffians. He denounced the ignorance of London editors.

MELBOURNE ART EXHIBITION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Mr. Joshua Lake has secured for the exhibition of the Royal Anglo-Australian Society of Artists at Melbourne Mark's picture, "From Sunny South," and Harker's "Return of Persophone."

H.M.S. ROYALIST.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—H.M.S. Satellite has been commissioned to replace H.M.S. Royalist on the Australian station.

THE PANAMA CANAL COMPANY.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The London Chamber of Arbitration in commercial cases will commence its sittings on the 23rd instant.

THE ARCHDUKE FERDINAND DESTRE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Archduke Ferdinand d'Este, son of the late Emperor of Austria, will visit Sydney at the end of March. He was found dead in bed.

MRS. PARNELL.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—It is suggested that the bankruptcy of Mrs. Parnell is connected with the Irish National League funds banked in Paris.

MARRIAGE OF GENERAL GORDON'S NEPHEW.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Captain Staveley Gordon, nephew of General Gordon, has been married to Miss Ann Stafford, daughter of Sir Edward Stafford.

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE FRENCH ANARCHISTS.

EXPLOSION OF A BOMB IN PARIS.

FOUR PERSONS KILLED.

MANY OTHERS INJURED.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—An infernal machine was exploded in the Avenue de l'Opera, Paris, to-day. Four persons were killed and many others were wounded.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—It is reported that a bomb was discovered outside the office of the Carmus Mining Company in Paris, and that when it was about to be removed to a police station, it exploded and wrecked a number of buildings. The bodies of the four persons who were killed were fearfully mutilated.

The anarchists of Paris threaten a great campaign if the man François, who is in custody on a charge of complicity in the explosion at M. Verr's restaurant, is extradited.

Two policemen, who were dreadfully injured by the explosion of a bomb in the Avenue de l'Opera, Paris, have died. One, a police station, it is reported, was killed by the effects of the explosion. All the occupants of the police station were killed. No clue has been obtained as to the perpetrators of the outrage.

It appears that the bomb was intended to destroy the directors of the Carmus Mining Company. It was made so as to explode when turned over.

The outrage has caused a feeling of dismay in Paris.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

The Carmus miners held a meeting after the outrage, and denounced the use of dynamite as a means of securing their ends.

An exciting debate, arising out of the outrage, took place in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Loubet, the Premier, was accused of causing the outrage through his weakness in dealing with the Carmus strikers. M. Loubet replied that such outrage indicated a return to barbarism. He declared that the people were destroying the Republic. A vote of confidence in the Ministry was carried by 359 to 94.

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

MR. GROVER CLEVELAND RETURNED.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

The New York Herald announces that Mr. Grover Cleveland has been elected President of the United States.

Mr. Cleveland has carried the election in New York State by a majority of 30,000.

New York City by a majority of 70,000.

He has also carried Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey, and Indiana by large majorities.

The weather was fine, and the elections were carried out in an orderly manner.

Many arrests were made for personation.

MR. A. J. BALFOUR AT EDINBURGH.

THE LORD MAYOR'S BANQUET.

THE IRISH EVICTED TENANTS COMMISSION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

Speaking at Edinburgh last night, Mr. Balfour, asserted that the members of the Ministry had decided to abstain from attending the Lord Mayor's banquet at the Guildhall to-day, owing to differences between Sir William Harcourt and Lord Rosebery on the question of the evacuation of Uganda.

Mr. Balfour expressed his pain and disgust at the partiality displayed by Sir Justice Mathew at the opening proceedings of the Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the best means of ameliorating the condition of the evicted tenants in Ireland.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

General Booth has reiterated his appeal to the public for £65,000, otherwise he says he will be compelled to sell the land required for his "Darkest England" scheme.

He states that he is unable to wait the report of the committee of which Lord Rosebery is chairman, appointed to inquire into the question of the establishment of overseas colonies.

SPECIAL CABLES.

FROM THE HERALD'S LONDON CORRESPONDENTS.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

MR. GROVER CLEVELAND RETURNED.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

The New York Herald announces that Mr. Grover Cleveland has been elected President of the United States.

Mr. Cleveland has carried the election in New York State by a majority of 30,000.

New York City by a majority of 70,000.

He has also carried Carolina, Virginia, New Jersey, and Indiana by large majorities.

The weather was fine, and the elections were carried out in an orderly manner.

Many arrests were made for personation.

MR. A. J. BALFOUR AT EDINBURGH.

THE LORD MAYOR'S BANQUET.

THE IRISH EVICTED TENANTS COMMISSION.

LONDON, Nov. 9.

Speaking at Edinburgh last night, Mr. Balfour, asserted that the members of the Ministry had decided to abstain from attending the Lord Mayor other sovereign in Europe, the French emperor, and the Pope, and the special audience by the Holy See the following grandiose appearance of Leo XIII. is, in all respects, very thin—indeed, the eyes, so little remains of that robe of white cloth—their in a large amount. The appearance of the Pope of the Latin world full of life and animation, however, by a soul so youthful, so full of zeal for his good, of such an earnestness of pity for physical suffering, and of such a desire to know how it is in millions day-after-day a dying day. About the he trades of trade, steadily, strong, strong one reveals an intellect knows how to walk.

It seems at first to come from the heart and ends by prayer, and is intended to mount to heaven than to still, while he goes on talking

Roman Catholic Church is also articulated the North American in the following are extremely important distinctions which accompanied the establishment of United Orispi, then member of Parliament, had several interviews on national television, then, then on one of these occasions the Orispi: "I am a very able liar career is open to you. The Orispi will be Minister of the King." "I accept the Orispi," "but when I shall be Pope." The prediction was made in February, 1978. Orispi was promoted to the membership Brussels. Belgium was not a representative of the Pope, the Orispi of a rather emotional turn of mind, and the Orispi of a rather peculiar views as to civil and religion. Still the young sando, by stereotyped manner, and Vassil in winning the sympathy of the crowd, as an acquaintance of an intimate friend and of her. His conversation was full of irony, but by the rather unattractive and somewhat repulsive man who kept appearing on his side and was showing the picture of a woman, beautiful as a work of art, and so on. In the name of friendship, he showed the picture to him, asking Monsieur looking at the personality, and giving it back to her, and at last, so as to be heard by the fine! Is it the portrait of your sister in winter, Le XXIII. In his private servant, Francesco Penopeto, Centre knocks at the door, addresses a customary salute, and at once retires. He comes up from the kitchen, a little unaided, except he regards the attention is performed by the woman. The bedroom is not the one used by the doctor; it is a small and the mezzano or retreat, to which he goes in the course of some of the old room, and where he has a small table, which he says his two cappuccini saffert, and hears elated by one of the same also as private secretary. It is that the Pope, having been stomachless, goes up with Latin or Italian poetry from the Vatican house. The treatment to one of the secretaries

The breakfast of the Pope consist, and bread without butter.
Official reception. The secretaries are obliged to leave Rome in able to see the Holy Father.
He can shine, the receptions are on his for a walk or a drive of the Vatican gardens.
At 1 o'clock in the old Roman is composed of a soup, generally at, a vegetable, very often fried Fried IX was very fond of was served to him daily in a of chicken, boiled beef, and this plate is banished from Leo's the kitchen and chosen Bordeaux. The Pope is very the journals at meal times.
generally, waited upon,
in company by his entire secretary Giulio Sterbini. This official religious tastes and artistic cultivation of the pre-Raphaelite school, to take coffee and milk mas is considered a great novelty extended to those who have not received the holy communion. It has lately been granted to the Duchess of Tuscany and to the Abbondanti, Alberti, and others, the favor of a throne of the Pope. In all cases the small table placed next to the of XIII. takes a short rest on a sofa, and the Duchess, never tiring beyond the walls, drives in the Belvedere which an avenue more than a mile long, after crossing the city over the city and its suburbs, is attended by a cameriere segreto the Guardia Nobil, stops very early in the morning, and is under supervision. This vineyard the pupils of an agricultural class IX., and accordingly if he finds a friend, he enters into a friendly talk o'clock, after granting other a cup of bouillon and a glass merally devoted to study and theory, or mental work of the highest. He prefers to dictate to a writer who is prepared to scruple of paper. When the over, the Pope sends for him, to whom for years

he has greatly attached
the rosary. Between half-past twelve, before going to bed, he of consonant, a bit of cold meat to dinner, and the usual glass of hourly hour for retiring is 11
he does not enjoy calm sleep, he has over-fatigued himself
while there are sudden changes reports are circulated about the alms and the sums of money at his personal disposal, that we glance at the exact state in the last Budget of the Holy Land to give, and could not give,

of any frame and continue;
in round figures, representing the expense of the last few years:
the disposal of the Pope, 600,000
lire for the curia, 700,000 lire for poor and needy bishoprics, 60; 4, administration of apostolic sees, 1,000,000 lire, 472,000; 8, service of the papacy, 1,000,000 lire, 1,600,000 lire, 800,000; 7,
the institutions, 1,200,000 lire, 1,600,000, 2300,000.

ws-page1375764

HORSES, VEHICLES, and HARNESS.
GEORGE KISS will sell by auction, at the [illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]